Overview

This course provides students with a general look at topics such as the history of Canadian law, criminal and civil law, constitutional law, contract law, family law, etc. It is not meant to "make lawyers" of students, but to give an introductory overview of the Canadian legal system that will help understand how the law affects us in our daily lives and society around us. This course is delivered online and students are provided with handy entry windows for responses to questions or "upload" buttons for larger files. Unit tests are supervised and must be written at Delta Access Testing Centre.

Reporting

Bi - Weekly Progress Reports

These be sent to both students and parents through the online website. These reports are sent via email addresses provided on course introduction forms filled out. Please make sure your online profile is up to date with this information to ensure these are received. If you need assistance with this, please contact your teacher to make sure you are getting these reports.

Report Cards

These will be issued for the Fall term in November, March and June. For Spring/Summer only a final report card will be issued in August. These reports are available for Delta School District students on student and parent connect. For those not attending one of our high schools please call our Continuing Education office 604-940-5550 to have a copy sent.

Only students who have done enough work to meet the activity requirement for the course will get report cards by the term deadlines outlined by their teachers. Even if you are getting progress reports you are not considered an active (official student) until this is met.

Course reports are based on only what has been submitted for the Fall term until April 1st and July 15th for the Spring/Summer term. At this time all missing assignments will count in grade calculations giving students a realistic picture of current course standings. It is important when viewing report cards and progress reports up until this point that the amount of the course completed is taken into consideration. (i.e. 90% standing in a course that is only 10% complete is very different than 90% in a course that is 80% complete)

Plagiarism

Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty

Plagiarism is the unauthorized use or close imitation of the language and thoughts of another author and the representation of them as one's own original work, as by not crediting the author (Dictionary.com) <http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/plagiarism>

Plagiarism can be done either intentionally or accidentally. Regardless, it is an academic offence that carries with it varying levels of consequences – from a mark of zero for work submitted to expulsion from the course and/or on-line program. Plagiarism takes various forms: copying another's work, not citing another's original work, cutting and pasting from the internet and claiming the work as your own, allowing other students to copy and submit your work as their own, and so on. It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to be aware of the rules around using and citing other people's work.

An excellent website that answers questions about plagiarism can be found at:

<http://www.plagiarism.org/>

<http://www.grammarly.com/>

<http://www.englishclub.com/writing/plagiarism.htm>

<http://australianhelp.com/plagiarism>

If you are uncertain as to whether you may be plagiarizing someone's work, check with your teacher or consult the many websites that outline the rules.

If a student is found to have submitted plagiarized work, the Delta Access teacher will notify both the student and Delta Access administration to document the violation and to determine further consequences. Repeated occurrences of plagiarism will likely result in a final mark of "Failure" in the specific on-line course.
